ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to acknowledge the contributions of Tony Mayer whose ongoing comments, encouragement, advice, support, and assistance truly made this book a reality. I sincerely thank my cousin and internationally-renowned artist, Bill Helin, for graciously allowing me to use his beautiful, evocative paintings throughout the book. Also, I wish to acknowledge the very special contributions of editor, Candis McLean, and graphic artist, Rosanna Hanser, whose enduring dedication and hard work made the publication of this book possible. In addition, I would like to recognize former principal of the Grandview/Uuquinak'uuh Elementary School in East Vancouver, Caroline Krause, for her general editorial contributions and her substantive comments and suggestions relating to Aboriginal educational issues. Thank you to my good friends Rob Hunt and Te Taru White for reviewing the manuscript and their valuable commentary. I would like to further acknowledge contributions, commentary, and ongoing support for this project from Chief Clarence Louie, Bernd Christmas, John and Inez Helin, Patrick Helin, Barrie Robbe, Stan Solberg, the late Chief Roy Mussell, and my good friends Dave Tuccaro, Chief Charles Kihega, and Billy Joe Takaro. Last, but by no means least, I would like to thank my dear wife Vernita, and my children, Georgina, Denise, Lewis, and wee grandson Lucius, for understanding and kindly giving up our shared time and attention together, thus allowing me to dedicate myself to this endeavor.
